General Organization of All Women's League Formed at Meeting Here. Officers Elected and Committees Appointed.

Representatives of the various Gresham College women's leagues met here this week and formed a provisional organization, appointing officers and committees, all of which are provisional and which must be ratified at a convention to be held later on. A constitution and by-laws for the general organization as well as a uniform constitution and by laws for the individual leagues was adopted also to be ratified later.

These officers were elected: president, Mrs. Mary G. Stuckenberg, Goshute; first vice president, Mrs. J. P. Hartman, Lafayette Hill; second vice president, Mrs. Charles F. Stifel, Pittsburg; recording secretary, Mrs. George F. Kaiser, Chambersburg; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles Samuels, Gettysburg; treasurer, Mrs. Mary McCreary, Indiana.

Those who have contributed are as follows: Mrs. M. C. Richard, Gettysburg, chairman; Mrs. Charles Welton, York; Mrs. L. C. Bell, York; Mrs. H. D. Stanley, Gettysburg; Mrs. John P. Dupp, Harrisburg; Miss Mary K. Dupp, Harrisburg; Mrs. George N. Lauffer, Newburg; Mrs. Jean M. Croll, Princeton, N. J.; Mrs. Montserrat, Shippensburg; and Mrs. Kitchinburg, ex officio.

The literary committee appointed is headed by Carrie Newsham, Gettysburg. Other members are Mrs. M. C. Richard, Gettysburg; treasurer, Mrs. M. C. Richard, Gettysburg; recording secretary, Mrs. H. E. Richard, Gettysburg; and Mrs. J. F. Seobach, Gettysburg. Those four will act as the editing board. Other members are Mrs. M. C. Richard, 3 Baker, Gettysburg; Mrs. H. E. Berkeley, Apollo; Mrs. Rachel Green, Gettysburg; Mrs. J. F. Seobach, Gettysburg; Mrs. J. F. Seobach, Lewisburg; Dr. W. A. Grenville, the delegates constitute the original organization committee. They are Miss Mary Annstul, Miss Jennie Owens, Mrs. Robert E. Clark, Mrs. L. C. Harkins, Mrs. W. E. Hoffman, Mrs. Rose M. John, Mrs. F. Depp, Harriette; Mrs. C. F. Saffel, Mrs. Kinch, Pittsburgh; Mrs. G. D. Shaffer, Mrs. M. E. Ritz, Gettysburg; Mrs. Stockenberg, an organizer, is co-official, a member of these committees.

It is expected that a number of new delegates will be fostered and that the work of the organization will be broadened considerably in its scope.

It takes a long time to make a new frog, and it takes a long time to make a new frog. The invention of a frog pul allows the point to be inserted when the part wears away and under the construction work is done. It is a very simple and easy to use.

Drawings of the new frog switch have been asked for by many of the largest railroad and street railway heads of the country, and are now being carefully examined by the president of the Chicago Street Railway system, the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company and many other companies.
